In Room 11

We have been learning about emotions.

During Drama our class has been using role play to portray a range of emotions. We have been discussing how these emotions can look and what they mean. Students have been involved in a range of activities to promote social skills and self awareness.