Year 2 & 3 in Room 22 have been very busy completing their magnificent illustrations in their class composed book - "Milo and Bonedigger's Outback Holiday".

This book is not just a narrative but an information report as well including a glossary and a story map showing the route that the characters took. Writing this book has taken the children on their own adventure and they gained many skills and information along the way.

The class will be presenting this...