The garden program this year will endeavour to use the produce grown by students to either produce yummy recipes or eat fresh off the plants. During term 1 the students grew pumpkins which were picked and turned into pumpkin scones. The following photos show their journey: