Last term in design and technology our class made aprons from tea towels. We were lucky enough to have Mel Maywald come in and help us for the day. She taught us how to use the sewing machine and demonstrated how to sew; then helped us with our own sewing skills.

I enjoyed sewing because it was fun and I am able to keep my apron forever.

Imogen

It was fun and taught us new skills for life later on.

Harry and Connor