Students listened eagerly to Senior Firefighter Harvey and watched Firefighter French as he donned his protective uniform.

Students prepared a range of inquiry questions about firefighter clothing. Here, Tamika James is asking a question and showing her great vocabulary to use “oxygen” when talking about the mask and tank.

Ethan Simms is a picture of concentration as he pulls the trigger on the fire hose.

Jaxon White is excited to be knocking down some orange cones with the fire truck hose, with the help of Firefighter Schumacher.
